REACH YOUR CUSTOMERS

With a membership base that spans the metro, there is no better way to reach your customers in their homes. We print 42,000 Co-op News magazines each month that are distributed throughout Caddo, Canadian, Cleveland, Grady, McClain, Oklahoma and Pottawatomie counties. These publications go directly into the homes of our members, our employees and our emeritus employees.

Co-op News is about issues that matter to the people we serve. This 20-page magazine features interesting and informative articles on topics like energy efficiency and conservation, policy and legislative issues, safety and much more.

We strive to highlight co-op people, community and economic development efforts, and other local priorities.

We want to invite you to join the long list of successful businesses on the pages of Co-op News to reach your customers – current and future.
